

Dear Grange Community,

We have completed our summer 1 2026 half-term and the academic year is reaching its culmination.

Yr 6 completed their Sats week and are now working hard on their writing and Yr 1 are getting ready for their phonics screening and year 4 are getting ready for their multiplication timestables check.

The PTFA are gearing up for the summer fair and next half-term will see year 6 graduation and so many music concerts - I am looking so forward. Well done to Ms Chido our Grange PTFA chair for a fantastic result in her run for Grange at the half-marathon last week.

I am sure you felt us with you!

Please use all the opportunities to get into Grange for open mornings and events next half-term and wishing us all a brilliant completion of the year next half-term

A free one-hour online workshop for parents with Una Archer MSc

Anxiety, Exhaustion, and Masking: Raising Emotionally Secure Autistic Girls

- She's doing well at school, but comes home completely exhausted...
- She tries so hard to fit in, but it never seems easy...
- She is chatty with you, but goes quiet around other people...

Is she coping or masking how hard she is working to keep up? Many neurodivergent girls learn to hide their struggles by copying others and pushing through their discomfort. While this helps them fit in, it can take a toll on their sense of self, confidence and well-being.

We will explore:

- How girls learn to mask
- Why unmasking isn't the whole answer
- What helps girls feel safe and confident to be themselves

This workshop is not about sharing generic, one-size-fits-all advice. Una will be guiding you through a process to help you better understand your daughter, her needs and how you can support her.

When: Monday, June 22, 2026, 10:30 - 11:30 am
