Write a biography about Mary Anning and her discovery of prehistoric creatures. Use research from internet and the work you have completed on Purple Mash to support your learning. An additional tutorial will be available on the Grange You Tube Channel to support with this activity. Please use the English Success Criteria Powerpoint.
SUCCESS CRITERIA FOR A BIOGRAPHY

• I have used a rhetorical question to hook the reader
• My first paragraph starts with when and where Mary Anning was born and family life.
• My second paragraph provides information on her childhood and early education.
• My third paragraph discusses the beginnings of her career and her achievements.
• My final paragraph mentions something about the person’s:
  • main achievements, personality and how he/she will be remembered
• I have written in chronological order.
• I have used sub headings.
• I have used third person pronouns.
• I have written in the past tense.
• I have used the passive voice to make the writing more formal.
• My writing is about key events in the person’s life.
Have you ever wondered how athletes become so skilled at their sport? Do you ever wish you could be like them? Well, Tom Daley, Olympic medal winning diver, did just that. He has shown determination and ambition from a very young age.

Introduction

British diver Tom Daley has represented his country in many competitions worldwide, including three Olympic Games. He specialises in platform dives - both as a solo athlete and in synchronised events.
Have you ever wondered how athletes become so skilled at their sport? Do you ever wish you could be like them? Well, Tom Daley, Olympic medal winning diver, did just that. He has shown determination and ambition from a very young age.

Introduction

British diver Tom Daley has represented his country in many competitions worldwide, including three Olympic Games. He specialises in platform dives - both as a solo athlete and in synchronised events.