LI: To write a scene using direct speech

Lesson outcomes

- Use knowledge of direct speech to write a scene from your own life involving two or more people talking to each other

Task

Write a scene from your own life where two or more people have been speaking to each other. It could be a conversation between you and your sister/ mum/ dad/ brother, or a conversation between two other people, like your two friends or two sisters.

E.g.:

One fine, sunny day, I was rushing around the kitchen trying to make myself a delicious lunch.

"Can I have a cucumber please?" asked Rishav suddenly. I was puzzled, but I gave it to him anyway.

"Sure, here you go," I responded. Rishav took the cucumber, which was still snug in its plastic wrapping.

"Thank you," he said. I watched in amazement as he proceeded to try to eat the cucumber which was still in its wrapper. What a bizarre boy!
