

Investigating Deforestation Adult Guidance

In this investigation, children will complete an activity to show how deforestation leads to soil erosion and causes nutrients to drain away.

It would be preferable if some of the resources for this investigation were prepared before the lesson.

Resources to prepare for each group:

- 3 plastic bottles with rectangular hole cut in the side.
- 3 bottom halves of plastic bottles with 2 small holes in opposite sides, for string to be threaded through.

