PSHE lesson: British Values - Mutual respect

L.I: To understand what mutual respect is.

In today's lesson you'll be learning about another important British value that we all have to follow, which is mutual respect for and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs and for those without faith. Watch the video clips and do the tasks below.

What is mutual respect?

Mutual respect is understanding that we may all not have the same beliefs and values, but we still respect and appreciate each other for our differences.

Watch these two videos below on mutual respect:

Task 1:

Write down below what respect means to you?

Task 2:

Can you write down different ways to show respect in the speech bubbles below?

In the classroom:

In the playground:

At home:

In assemblies:

To my peers:

To adults:

To myself:

I will respect
myself

I will respect
my things

I will respect
others

I will respect
my teacher

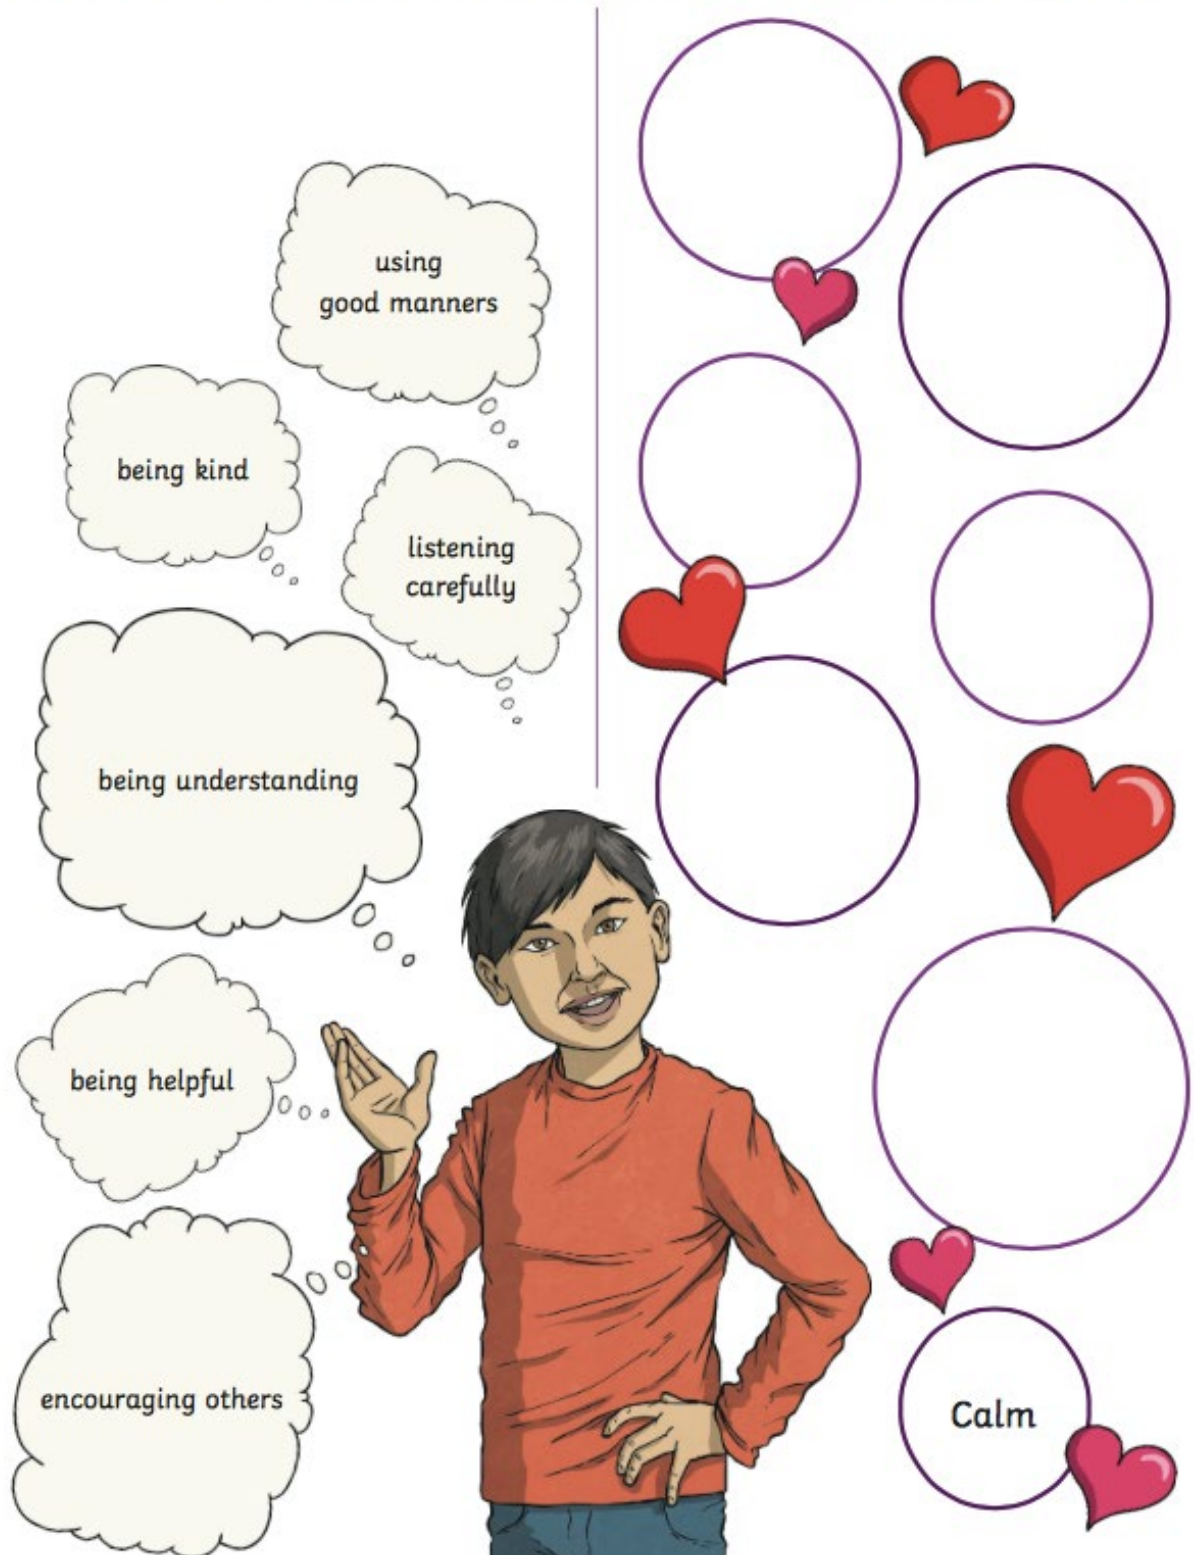

I will respect
my classroom

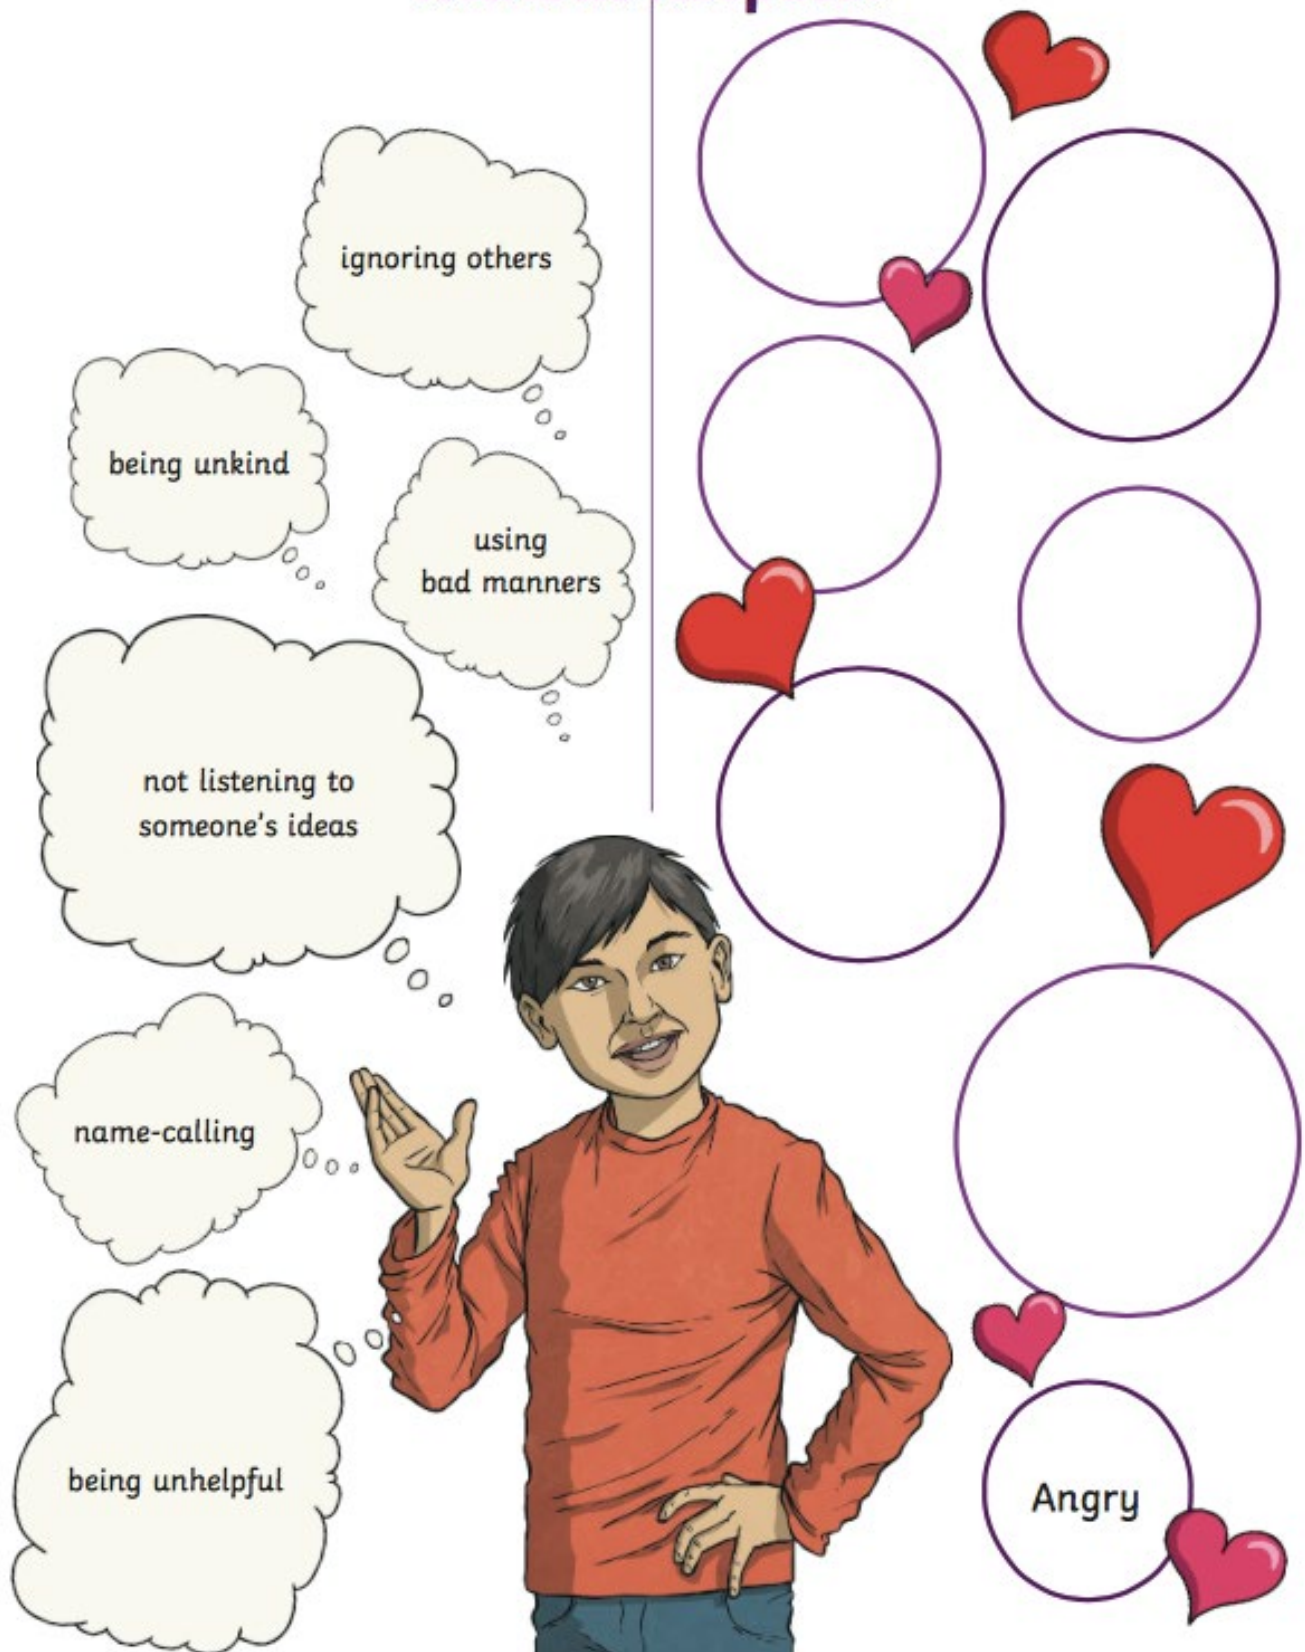

Task 3:

We know that we should all respect and be tolerant towards one another, however how would this make you feel? Have a go at this worksheet below.

How Does It Feel to Be Treated with Respect?

How Does It Feel to Be Treated without Respect?

Bonus task!

Draw a poster on what Mutual respect means to you. Enjoy.
