

PSHE & RSE KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

YEAR:5 Term: Autumn 2

Celebrating Differences
THREE KEY QUESTIONS
What is racism?	What is the difference between direct and indirect types of bullying?	What is happiness?
Suggested books 	VOCABULARY  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Equality (law) -the right to equal protection of the laws. Human Rights(law) - any basic right or freedom to which all human beings are entitled. Race - refers to a person's physical characteristics, such as bone structure and skin, hair, or eye colour. Culture -the ideas, customs, and social behaviour of a particular people or society. 	Jigsaw reflections  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Respect the rights of others online I have the right to privacy Growing up in a safe environment is a fundamental right for all Human rights apply to both the online and offline worlds Tolerance is an important attribute of online life Sharing your thoughts, ideas and points of view with others online is important
LEARN HOW TO
Understand that cultural differences sometimes cause conflict.	Understand how rumour-spreading and name-calling can be bullying behaviours.	Compare my life with people in the developing world.
Quote	A nation's culture lives in the hearts and souls of its people.

RE KNOWLEDGE ORGANISER

The Big Picture

In this unit, the pupil will be encouraged by the idea of social action and giving to others in Islam and Christianity. They will know that these faiths believe in helping others and explore why. They will understand what giving means in religious terms and a nonfaith context and how these faiths practically help others and bring communities together.

Key Questions

Is it better to give than receive?

Vocabulary	Facts
Charity Giving Gifts/presents/ Volunteering Tithes Percentage Community Church Mosque The needy Zakat	Islam and Charity Islam teaches that all wealth and possessions are gifts from Allah and should be used in ways that will please Him. In Islam, individuals have a social responsibility towards the rest of society, especially towards those who are living in poverty. Helping others There are two types of Zakat and both are obligatory - Zakat ul-Mal and Zakat ul-Fitr.	CAFOD CAFOD is the catholic Agency for Overseas Development. It is a charitable organisation linked to the Catholic Church in the UK. Christian Aid Christian Aid works with people living in poverty, no matter what their faith is or if they have none. It's called Christian Aid because it was started by Christians who believed that the Bible teaches Christians to care for others.